Seth H. Ross represents property owners in the conversion of apartment buildings to condominium and cooperative ownership. He also represents a wide variety of clients in purchases, sales and financing of real estate, and represents both landlords and tenants in the leasing of office, retail, and industrial property.

Seth believes that an attorney should be an integral part of a client's team, working with the client and other professionals as needed to accomplish the client's objective in a practical and cost-effective way.
