JASPAN SCHLESINGER LLP TO DONATE TO 75 NOT-FOR-PROFIT ORGANIZATIONS TO COMMEMORATE ITS 75TH ANNIVERSARY

Region's Leading Full-Service Law Firm Celebrates 75 Years of Innovative Client Service

Garden City, NY – June 24, 2021 – Jaspan Schlesinger LLP, one of the region's leading full-service law firms, is commemorating its 75th anniversary by making 75 donations to not-for-profit organizations serving the New York metropolitan area.

The Jaspan Schlesinger Heart of the Community Awards will be presented to organizations that demonstrate a commitment to the betterment of New York communities, echoing the values and mission that Jaspan Schlesinger LLP was founded on in 1946. Initial award recipients will include: Long Island Cares, Family Service League, Spectrum Designs, Big Brothers Big Sisters of Long Island, American Foundation for Suicide Prevention, and the Suffolk Y JCC. All recipients will be profiled on the Jaspan Schlesinger website as well as the firm's social media pages.

"Giving back, whether through volunteerism or philanthropy, has always been a cornerstone of Jaspan Schlesinger's firm culture," said Steve Schlesinger, co-managing partner. "With these awards, we hope to recognize the New York region's non-for-profit leaders and highlight the worthy causes that they support."

"Our attorneys frequently volunteer their time to serve on the boards of not-for-profit organizations and religious corporations, participate in and sponsor events, and provide critical pro bono legal services to those in need," said Jothy Narendran, co-managing partner, who is a board member of the American Heart Association and serves as President of the Board of Directors of Spectrum Designs Foundation, a Port Washington not-for-profit which provides employment and training opportunities for youths and adults with autism. "We felt the best way to mark our anniversary was to provide to the organizations that are nearest to our hearts with one contribution for each year we have been in business."

Commitment to Community

Each year, Jaspan Schlesinger LLP participates in a number of charitable events. In April 2020, the attorneys and staff at Jaspan Schlesinger LLP pitched in to purchase 1,500 gowns, personal protective equipment (PPE) and much needed supplies for the ICU of a local hospital in need during the COVID-19 pandemic.

The firm is a proud sponsor of the annual Marcum Workplace Challenge, a 3.5-mile run-walk for the benefit of Long Island not-for-profits. Employees have also have taken part in United Way's Stuff-a-Bus, the America Heart Association's annual "Wear Red Day" and EAC Network's "Over the Edge" event, in which participants rappelled down the Tower at Nassau Community College to raise money for Long Island children in foster care, senior citizens, and individuals dealing with substance abuse and mental health issues.
